Posted on Tuesday, 27 September 2011

The Tenants' Union will launch its new tenancy booklet:

Don't Panic: A Tenants' Guide to Renting in Tasmania

in the Elizabeth Street Mall, Hobart from 12 noon until 2pm to coincide with International Tenants' Day, Monday 3rd October.

We will be giving away pens, balloons, fridge magnets and, of course, our new booklet, specially made for Tasmanian residential tenants. There will also be free tenancy advice and information for residential tenants if you need it.
