

Who we are

International Union of Tenants (IUT) is a non-governmental and not-for-profit membership organisation for global tenants' organisations. IUT was founded in 1926 in Zürich, Switzerland. Since 1956 our head office is in Stockholm, Sweden with a representative office in Brussels since 2008. We have 74 member organisations in 51 countries, and are financed through membership fees. Guiding all our work is the Tenants' Charter.

The Tenants' Charter is available in all major languages on www.iut.nu

What we do...

Housing needs to be addressed locally, nationally and internationally. Affordable and sound housing is one of the safeguards for peace and security, a fundamental pillar in all democratic societies and necessary for labour mobility. Lack of affordable housing and homelessness are major ingredients in social exclusion. Tenants should have a right to participate in decisions affecting their homes.
